

Jackson Township High School
English Department

Course Title: NJGPA ELA 12 (0136)

Room: C106

Teacher(s): Mr. Pienkowski - japienkowski@jacksonsd.org

Office Hours: by appointment during the Common Period

Required Materials

- a. Charged Chromebook
- b. A 3-ring binder or a Spiral Notebook and Folder
- c. Writing utensil (pen or pencil)
- d. Positive attitude and an open mind

Cell Phones

- a. Cell phones will be placed in the pocket holder in the front of the classroom at the beginning of class and can be picked up at the end of class
- b. Focus, engagement, and participation are crucial to your success in this course

Grading

The English Department requires that the following grading policy be implemented:

- a. Participation 20% (includes daily attendance)
- b. Homework 40% (includes classwork)
- c. Assessment 40% (includes quizzes, tests, projects, & essays)

NJGPA ELA Assessment

All students enrolled in the NJGPA ELA 12 course will be required to take the NJGPA ELA Assessment in October. In addition to the assessment, students will be required to complete the ELA Portfolio Appeal, which includes a variety of reading comprehension and writing tasks.

- a. We will be doing different test preparation assignments and assessments before the test
 - i. ELA Portfolio Appeal tasks will take place during the class period

Participation

Participation is necessary to be successful in this course

- a. Absent students have the option to make up missed work within two days of the absence if you have a Doctor's note
 - i. All other absences are not excused and your absence and work can be made up during the Common Period.
- b. Being prepared counts for participation as well

Homework

- a. Students will receive credit for completing and contributing to classroom activities
- b. Homework is expected to be completed and turned in on its due date.
- c. Homework may include reading assignments and/or online textbook assignments.

Assessment: Tests, Quizzes, Essays, and Projects

- a. Quizzes will be announced and unannounced; it is best always to be prepared.
- b. Tests will be announced at least two days before the day students will be required to take them. If you are absent on test day, you must take the test upon return.
- c. School policy states that you have five days to make up missed tests. Please do not wait that long.
- d. Late projects and/or essays will not be accepted.

Attendance

- a. You are only allowed eight unexcused absences per semester in each class. If you exceed the allotted absences, you may be denied credit regardless of the grade that you may receive.
- b. You are responsible for seeing me to see what assignments were missed during your absence.

Class Dismissal

- a. I ask that you remain seated and on task until we dismiss you for the day.
- b. I decide when the class is over.
- c. If you are standing, you are staying.

Restroom Policy

- a. You may use the restroom before or after a lesson or a lecture, but PLEASE do not interrupt the class in the middle of a lesson because you have to go to the bathroom. Please ask to leave the room at an appropriate time. Using your pass is a privilege that will be suspended if misused and/or abused.

Reading/Film Review

We will be covering the following:

- i. The Body
 - a. This book is a coming-of-age story about four 12-year-old friends in the fictional town of Castle Rock, Maine in 1960. The boys, search for the body of Ray Brower, a boy who has gone missing, along the railroad tracks. The boys encounter many challenges, and as they search, the boys come to terms with death and the harsh realities of growing up in a small factory town. There is violence, some sensuality, and powerful themes. We will be watching the film “Stand By Me” after the novel.

Reading/Film Review (continued)

- ii. Jaws
 - a. We will read excerpts from this novel about a great white shark that terrorizes a small Long Island resort town and the three men trying to kill it. The story takes place in the fictional town of Amity Island, where police chief Martin Brody, oceanographer Matt Hooper, and shark hunter Quint must confront their fears and battle the shark for survival. There is violence and powerful themes. We will be watching the film “Jaws.”
- iii. Film Study
 - a. If time permits, we will study other films at the end of the semester that cover all of the topics and themes studied throughout the semester.

Writing

- a. Writing is also an essential life skill: my job is to teach you how to become a better writer. Formal essays that count as tests require the following:

Classroom Rules: Please adhere to the following rules:

- a. Be prepared and ready to work when you arrive, and respect yourself and each other
- b. Be in your seat when the bell rings, and follow directions the first time
- c. Refrain from using language that will embarrass you, your parents, or me